IV. COAR Open House Application	15

I. The Open House – Overview

1) Quickies

Abbreviations: Just a quick reminder:

- COAR Children’s Village (COARCV) – located in Zaragoza, El Salvador, Central America. It was founded by a Cleveland Diocese mission team priest in 1980 as a war orphanage and continues to provide residential foster care today. It is wholly administered by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Salvador. Its 80-acre campus not only contains several small houses for the residential children but also contains the COAR school, clinic, guesthouse(s), large chapel, cafeteria, and various other buildings and activities such as a soccer field, basketball and volleyball court, band practice field, and a large agricultural section (corn, beans, organic/sustainable practices gardens, and sometimes chickens.)
- COAR Peace Mission (COARPM) – located in Wickliffe, OH (just outside Cleveland) is the outreach office for the COAR Children’s Village and the primary contact for all visitors.

Currency: US$

Electricity: US/Canada compatible

Weather: hot and humid

2) What and where

- COAR Peace Mission invites you to visit the COAR Children’s Village in Zaragoza, El Salvador. Many people have asked through the years whether they can visit COAR. Of course you can, but it has always been hard for individuals to organize a trip. We are trying to remedy that with this “Open House.”
- Teach English to our students in the morning
- Spend afternoons and weekends at important sights such as St. Romero’s home and the grave site of the Four North American Churchwomen (detailed itinerary will develop as reservations are confirmed)
- Spend quality time (craft projects, soccer games, etc.) with the internos, children who live at the COAR Children’s Village, again, the itinerary will develop as reservations are confirmed.
- Stay in the retreat center adjacent to COAR; trip number limit: 20. All rooms have bathrooms, single occupancy (or doubles available upon request.)

- Health
 - There will be lots of walking including stairs and hills
 - Power outages are frequent
 - No ability to accommodate food allergies

 - Airport pick-up and drop-off
 - All meals
 - Single room accommodations

6) Airfare and other responsibilities for the traveler (you)

- You must purchase your own airfare.
- Trip cancellation/interruption insurance - You can purchase this from the airline or other 3rd-party providers.

- Traveler health insurance, “emergency medical evacuation” required – This pays for emergency departure from El Salvador for medical or other reasons. Costs vary with the options selected. Suggested site: <http://missionaryhealth.net/>
- Visa - The fee for US and Canadian passport-holders for a tourist visa is US$12 and must be paid in cash at the airport in San Salvador upon arrival. This fee is NOT included with your fee to COAR. Passport-holders from other countries should check with your local El Salvador consulate or embassy.
- Extra cash for snacks or souvenirs or small donations at local churches: most people find $50-$100 enough (small bills, $5's and $1's.)

- If COAR cancels:
 - 100% refund

II. Solidarity

Solidarity comes from identifying with the impoverished community that we serve:

"When we speak for the poor, please note that we do not take sides with one social class. What we do is invite all social classes, rich and poor, without distinction, saying to everyone let us take seriously the cause of the poor as though it were our own."

- St. Romero, 9/9/1979

Any visit to El Salvador will confront you with poverty. A visit to COAR will bring the poor into your heart. Our children have few "things" like toys or clothes, but they have the most important things: nutritious food, safety, education. As you get to know the circumstances of the individual children who touch your heart, poverty takes on a deeper reality.

1) Preparing yourself and your supporters...

Involving friends, family, and church members in your trip before you go will enhance the experience as well as provide support when you return. Fundraisers for a specific project that you can attest to when you return will also bring your community into your experience. If asked, we can create a web page of your visit to share with folks back home.

2) Reading and movies ...

There are many books, movies, and documentaries about El Salvador. We encourage you to view or read these before the trip. We keep an updated list on our website: FUN STUFF > LESSON PLANS AND RESOURCES
<https://coarpeacemission.org/lesson-plans-and-resources/>

3) Food, entertainment, travel, walking...

We encourage you to leave electronic entertainment devices behind. The children's school and house routines must be respected - that means early to bed and early to rise – (the children wake up at 5 am!) The food available at COAR is healthy and wholesome but simple. Travel by bus on poor roads

COAR Open House – Application and guidelines
2022 dates: June 29 (Wednesday) – July 6 (Wednesday)
COAR Peace Mission * 28700 Euclid Ave. * Wickliffe, OH 44092 * voice: (440) 943-7615
e-mail: coarpm@gmail.com * <http://www.coarpeacemission.org>

will be hot, dusty, bumpy, and long. Most sites, including COAR, require lots of walking.

4) Mass, prayer, worship...

COAR is a Catholic school run by the Archdiocese of San Salvador. You are welcome to attend mass at the school during the week. Sunday obligation will be arranged as the schedule develops.

5) Donated goods are discouraged

We discourage drives for tangible goods that would have to be transported to El Salvador. In addition to the transport and customs expense, a mature understanding of charity requires that we respond to economic realities: it helps build El Salvador's economy if we buy goods there.

Purchasing in El Salvador gives storeowners, truckers, and many others jobs. It signals where there is real demand for products so that sustained growth in the economy can be recognized. It helps break the cycle of dependency.

III. More details

1) El Salvador basics

- El Salvador uses US$ currency. Canadians should bring US currency. There is no way to visit an ATM or otherwise get or exchange cash.
- Credit cards are accepted many places, but verification is often down. Travelers' checks are not accepted most places.
- Electricity: US style plugs and current
- Most North American cell phones will work in El Salvador. Check with your carrier on details and prices.
- However, if circumstances arise where you need to use or contact a Salvadoran phone: Country code +503. If you are trying to dial a Salvadoran phone from the US you will need to first enter the "+" plus-sign on a smart phone or dial 011-503-. . . Conversely, if using a Salvadoran phone in El Salvador, you must enter "+1" to access the US or Canada before entering the area code and number.
- Time zone: El Salvador will be two hours behind Eastern Standard Time in June and July. (In other words, they do not have daylight-savings-time; so, when our time shifts an hour, they move between Central Time and Mountain Time.)

2) Emergency contact information

Emergency contact (dial them as US/Canadian numbers):

+1 (440) 943-7615 (COARPM office)

+1 (234) 380-7527 (our mobile phone with the group in El Salvador)
coarpm@gmail.com

- Your COAR guides will carry a cell phone that receives and can call internationally. HOWEVER, as in all developing countries cell service can be intermittent and can go down for hours or days.
- E-mail: The guesthouse where we stay usually has wifi. Depending on your mobile plan you may be able to access the cell signal for email/data. HOWEVER, access is always intermittent.

3) Medical

- No smoking on the COAR grounds. At the guesthouse smoking is only allowed in designated areas outside the guesthouse.
- As with most developing countries, care must be taken with hygiene and food. There are also special considerations in tropical climates from insect-borne diseases such as Zika and Dengue Fever.

COAR Open House – Application and guidelines

2022 dates: June 29 (Wednesday) – July 6 (Wednesday)

COAR Peace Mission * 28700 Euclid Ave. * Wickliffe, OH 44092 * voice: (440) 943-7615

e-mail: coarpm@gmail.com * <http://www.coarpeacemission.org>

- Consult your own physician or medical travel specialist for medications, vaccinations, etc. General information can be found at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention: <http://www.cdc.gov>
- COAR cannot tell you what is appropriate for your situation and comfort level.
- Emergency situations: travel insurance for emergency medical evacuation is required.
- COVID: Most places in El Salvador will require facemasks. Please bring enough for your entire stay.
- Common sense health precautions:
 - Do not eat raw fruits or vegetables, ice, or food from small vendors unless advised to do so by your guide. Most cooked food from reputable restaurants or preserved food from stores is acceptable; however, check with your guide. All food served at the guesthouse and COARCV cafeteria is washed and prepared hygienically.
 - Do not leave food in your luggage (bugs!)
 - Bring bug repellent in case flies or mosquitoes become annoying and to help prevent mosquito-borne illness.
 - Bring hand-sanitizers and disinfectant wipes for excursions
 - Check your shoes before putting them on (spiders and scorpions)

4) Security

Violence from the war ended with the peace accords of 1992. However, as with most poor countries, criminal violence and other random crimes are prevalent.

- The guest house is behind a security fence and its walls adjoin COAR's, which are patrolled by security guards 24/7/365.
- The vehicle entry to the guest house and both vehicle entrances to COAR are guarded and the guards are asked to be very careful about anyone trying to enter after dark.
- Never leave the group while on excursions. Never leave the guesthouse grounds or the COAR grounds without consulting the COAR Peace Mission guide.
- Common sense security precautions:
 - Do not wear expensive jewelry (leave it at home) or wear flashy clothing that attracts attention to you as a wealthy tourist
 - Do not carry more cash than necessary
 - Be aware of your surroundings and belongings at all times
 - Do not take public transportation or otherwise take excursions separate from the group

COAR Open House – Application and guidelines
2022 dates: June 29 (Wednesday) – July 6 (Wednesday)
COAR Peace Mission * 28700 Euclid Ave. * Wickliffe, OH 44092 * voice: (440) 943-7615
e-mail: coarpm@gmail.com * <http://www.coarpeacemission.org>

- Details of the security situation in El Salvador can be found at the U.S. Consulate's web site: <http://travel.state.gov>
- Do not give your phone number or US address to a Salvadoran unless you want to be contacted directly by that person and his/her family members in the US when you return.

5) Guest house accommodations

- Single rooms are provided. Double rooms are available upon request.
- Sheets, pillows, and a bath towel are provided.
- Each room has a bathroom with sink, toilet, and (cold) shower.
- Limited laundry facilities (for hand washing and clothesline to dry.) Iron and ironing board usually available.
- Drinking water provided in large dispensers; you can use them to fill your personal water bottles.
- Running water for showers and washing occasionally gets shut-off due to the general shortage of water in El Salvador. The guesthouse will store water in buckets, drums, and concrete tubs and use small basins for all washing when the water in the tap is off. You will love a bucket shower!

6) Meals

- All meals are included and depending on the itinerary will be from the COAR cafeteria, the guest house kitchen, or the occasional restaurant.
- Salvadoran food is heavy on corn tortillas, beans, rice, vegetables, and chicken. Vegetarians are usually easily accommodated, but no special meals for vegetarians can be guaranteed.
- No special meals for food allergies are guaranteed.

Special Section – Table Manners – “Buen Provecho”

- Salvadorans have excellent table manners:
 - They chew with their mouths closed.
 - They NEVER blow their noses at the table and NEVER into the table napkin. (They excuse themselves to another room to blow their noses.)
- Salvadorans never leave food on their plates:
 - If you aren't sure if you will like it, don't take much onto your plate or order it in a restaurant.
 - Do not disparage the food. It will offend the cooks and Salvadorans who take pride in their national cuisine.

If you are eating, Salvadorans will greet you with the phrase, “Buen provecho,” both approaching the table and leaving. Loosely translated it means, “Enjoy your meal”
In places of severe poverty, food is not taken for granted, thrown out, or criticized. They always thank God for what they have.

7) Additional gifts and donations

- Please do not make donations directly to the COAR Children’s Village:
 - They cannot issue a receipt valid for U.S. or Canadian tax deductions.
 - You should not carry more cash than is absolutely necessary.
 - It can encourage a false impression of your wealth, North Americans, COAR itself, and it can encourage a sense of dependency.
- Please do not give candy to the children. Too many people do this, and it has become a problem for their teeth!
- Please do not bring gifts like coloring books, etc.:
 - It is better for the economy of El Salvador that goods be purchased in the country.
 - When visitors bring goods it gives the employees, children, and surrounding community a false impression of wealth that COAR does not have.

Your greatest gift is yourself, your presence, your solidarity.

8) What to pack?

- El Salvador is HOT, and sometimes also rainy (during May - November, it rains heavily once or twice a day.) Pack light. Wear socially appropriate clothing - you will stand out no matter what you wear, and you will represent COAR and your country.
- Make sure to check latest airport security measures for what you can carry-on, etc.
- Packing guidelines:
 - Do not pack shorts, uncomfortable shoes, or overtly sexy clothing. Despite the heat Salvadorans rarely wear shorts or overtly sexy clothing. It will be interpreted as a sign of disrespect or an invitation for unwanted attention.
 - Pack a flashlight, bug spray, sunscreen, hat, personal water bottle
 - Pack light-weight pants (like khakis), capris, or skirts (not too mini)
 - Pack good walking shoes; do not wear open-toed sandals except around the guest house - there is lots of muck in the streets.

COAR Open House – Application and guidelines

2022 dates: June 29 (Wednesday) – July 6 (Wednesday)

COAR Peace Mission * 28700 Euclid Ave. * Wickliffe, OH 44092 * voice: (440) 943-7615

e-mail: coarpm@gmail.com * <http://www.coarpeacemission.org>

- Pack something nice for mass on Sunday (polo shirt and khakis are OK; ties or blazers unnecessary; women can wear nice pants).
- Pack an umbrella – lightweight and compact. Check current regulations regarding checking umbrellas (vs. carry-on). You will probably find it too hot to wear a raincoat.
- Pack swimsuit (reasonably modest - no string bikinis) (towels are provided by the guest house).
- Bring shampoo, toothpaste, etc. - COAR has a limited supply of the basics in case you forget, but there is no place to buy these near COAR.
- Pack light - the only clothes storage in the guest house is a small closet for hanging clothes. You will be living out of your suitcase for most of the time.

9) Social media, photos, etc.

- You are welcome to take pictures and videos for personal use. Please show courtesy by asking people if you may take their picture. However, all the internos are used to pictures – they love it.
- Please DO NOT POST ON SOCIAL MEDIA any pictures or identifying stories of the COAR children or staff without the permission of the COAR Peace Mission guide. Some pictures or the child's circumstances may make it humiliating or dangerous to post to social media.
- We ask that you agree to let us take pictures of you at any time. However, we won't identify you without your permission.

10) Itinerary

- We will develop the daily itinerary as we receive applications with dates.
- Most weekday mornings we will be teaching English in the high school.
- Most weekday afternoons and weekends we will visit sites important to COAR's history, El Salvador, or other interesting sites. Priority will be given to these sites, and we will try to make sure every visitor has a chance to visit them at least once:

St. Romero's Residence at Divina Providencia - San Salvador

Saint Romero was assassinated while saying mass at the convent chapel on the grounds where he lived. His residence is a museum of his personal effects. There is a small gift shop.

UCA/Museum of the Jesuit Martyrs, their housekeeper, and her daughter - San Salvador

The UCA (University of Central America) has a small, lovely campus in San Salvador. The residence where the six Jesuits, their housekeeper, and her daughter were murdered in 1989 is maintained as a museum. The campus chapel also contains compelling art inspired by these events. There is a place to buy posters at the museum.

Shrine of the Four Church Women – near San Pedro Nonualco

The site where the bodies of the four North American Churchwomen, murdered in December 1980, were found is located in a lovely rural area about a 2-hour drive from COAR. There is a small chapel.

La Libertad and Beaches

The coastal city of La Libertad is approximately 30 minutes from COAR. While famous as a surfing destination, it is dangerous for swimming. After a tour of the town, we might visit a beach club up the coast to experience the beautiful beaches of El Salvador and the restaurants that overlook them. This is not frivolous. Salvadorans are proud of their country's beauty, and it informs a comprehensive picture of the opportunities and challenges that our COAR children face when they enter into their economy as adult citizens.

Campo visit and mass

“Campo” means country, or countryside. We will travel to see the types of impoverished towns and neighborhoods that the COAR children come from. This may be either in the hillside towns served currently or historically by the Cleveland Latin American Mission Team (La Libertad, Teotepeque, Chiltiupán) or neighborhoods near Zaragoza, depending on how the agenda develops.

Romero's Tomb at the Cathedral - San Salvador

Saint Romero is buried in a crypt under the Cathedral in the heart of downtown San Salvador. Traffic in the capital can be quite congested. Therefore, it is usually best to visit on Sunday when there is less traffic.

5.b. Medical Risk Release
Yes	No	Place a check mark in either the Yes or No box for each item*
		I have completed the immunization and medical information portion of this release accurately and completely.
		I understand that travel to El Salvador may expose me to several diseases endemic to that region, including, but not limited to: dengue fever, chikungunya, malaria, and zika virus. I understand that COAR Peace Mission and COAR Children’s Village cannot protect me from exposure to these diseases or offer effective treatment. I have consulted my own health professional about the risk of exposure to diseases, including, but not limited to: the possibility of transmitting these diseases to others upon my return, the risks to pregnancy, and the risks to my own health. I take responsibility for my decision to visit El Salvador fully cognizant of these risks.

6. General Understandings (* required)

Yes	No	Place a check mark in either the Yes or No box for each item to indicate that you understand the conditions you are likely to encounter on this trip. Please discuss any questions or concerns about these items with your group leader.*
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that travel in El Salvador may be difficult and uncomfortable, hot, dusty, and with unexpected delays; that COAR and other sites require walking and climbing; that electricity at COAR and excursion sites is limited and unreliable. I understand that food availability and preparation is limited in El Salvador and special dietary needs or restrictions (e.g.: vegetarianism, peanut allergies) may not be accommodated. I feel that my general physical health is sufficient for this trip.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that COAR exists to serve the best needs of impoverished children. I want to participate in COAR's mission by respecting the children's schedule, honoring any requests made by the housemothers, teachers, or staff regarding the well-being of COAR, and bringing any concerns about my understanding of these requests to my group leader.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that El Salvador has a tragic and complex past, through which many people I meet will have lived and suffered. I will ask any questions about that time and receive the answers humbly and with the understanding that I may not have the language ability or experience to judge the actions or opinions of those Salvadorans who share their experiences with me.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that the needs of my group must be respected and I will follow the established schedule, participate in group activities and reflection times, and be considerate of my fellow-travelers.
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that if my behavior endangers the children or staff of COAR or my group I may be asked to leave COAR and El Salvador at my own expense.
